Dear Sirs

I am not sure what the legal entanglements are that the Samaritans are referring to in the attached communications FrSamaritans(Pigshitbags)7Sep2023.docx in light of the fact that the Office for Police and Crime Commissioner has not yet completed its assessment of whether the Bail conditions imposed on me for alleged stalking and sending malicious communications is pending a Report: FrOPCC(Request for Review Kent PoliceComplaint4Sep2023.docx.

There is no evidence that Kent Police has charged me for any offence that the Crown Prosecution Service has forwarded to North Kent Magistrates for consideration.

The only way I can be sure that either Olives Solicitors or any of the other Solicitors that I have consulted are acting for me as my representative in Court is if one of them corresponds with me and this has not happened of late.

If Kent Police is proceeding with the investigation of the said offences, that is fine by me, but some clarity needs to be established as we move forwards in light of the linked materials:PROGRESS TOWARDS RESOLUTION (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/progress-towards-resolution> and Your Online Consultation with Long Catlis Road on 7.docs.

I shall be unavailable from the 14 September to the 22 September 2023, following which I have an appointment at Medway Police Station with regard to the Bail on 28 September 2023 1600 hours and 10 October 2023 1600 hours; so any information that Kent Police can provide me on these matters would be most helpful.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Hello Shantanu,

I'm pleased to read that you were able to book your prescription medications in readiness for your holiday.

I can see from what you write, the legal problems and uncertainties are causing you distress. Will having engaged the services of a solicitor allow your mind to be away from these entanglements while you are on holiday?

How are you feeling about your upcoming trip to Turkey?

Jo

OPCC Reviews Kent <opcc.reviews@kent.police.uk>

To:

shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Mon, 4 Sept at 10:31

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

I am writing to acknowledge your request for a review of the outcome of your complaint CO/915/23. It is the role of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) to determine whether the handling of your complaint was reasonable and proportionate; and if not, to make recommendations to Kent Police to redress any concerns.

Firstly, we need to ensure that a number of key criteria are in place before we consider your request. We must ensure that:

The OPCC is the correct body to review your complaint;

That you have the right to request a review;

That the request is valid; that is, it contains all the necessary details for us to consider the review;

That it has been made within the 28 day-limit, or if not, there is a valid reason for the request to be outside of this period.

I should also clarify that it is not the role of the OPCC to make a judgement on legal issues, or operational matters such as on-going or concluded criminal cases. Operational policing decisions are not within the remit of this review. It is solely our role to judge whether Kent Police have acted reasonably and proportionately in trying to resolve your complaint. In your case it is to assess whether the decision to take no further action was reasonable and proportionate in all of the circumstances.

Please note that this office is a separate entity to Kent Police, our role in law is the review of your complaint outcome. We are not the owners of the data/information provided to us for the purpose of this review. If you consider it appropriate to raise a Subject Access Request in relation to any data or information which has been collated by or on behalf of Kent Police, then all requests must be made to Kent Police direct via the Public Disclosure Team who can be contacted via email at public.disclosure@Kent.police.uk

I will review the points that you have raised and aim to provide you with a response within 40 working days from the date of this acknowledgement ie I will aim to respond to you in full by 30th October 2023.

Please note that this may not always be possible and if there is likely to be any delay I will notify you accordingly.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sirs

I am not sure who selected out these sentences as my complaint; and ignore the substance of the complaint filed through the independent Office for Police Conduct with elaborations as attached: ToPSDKentPolice(no subject) OneReportNeeded19Aug2023.docx; and as such it is totally unsatisfactory way of dealing with my complaint.

Notwithstanding, I note the options that you have given me for an internal review of the specific matter to deal with the Conditions of Bail: as follows:

In writing to:
 The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner
 South Block
 Kent Police
 Sutton Road
 Maidstone
 ME15 9BZ

You have 28 days, starting the day after this letter is dated, to submit an application for review.

I wish this Appeal to the Police and Crime Commissioner to be implemented immediately and will pursue all other avenues open to me including visiting the Magistrates Court as another option because I am innocent of all the scurrilous allegations of stalking and malicious communications that are alleged as the offences that I am a suspect on.

Yours sincerely

I called the Surgery again and this time I spoke to the receptionist about my medications being hurried up as we were going on holiday and I did not wish to run out of my medication during that. I said I had made a request on my GP. She said it went on 5 September 2023 to the Pharmacist.

This afternoon the Mental Health nurse from the Surgery called on my Mobile Phone while I was out with Rupa and she also called on the Landline that Rashmi took and passed the message on to me. She had called from a Private number so I could not call her back, but I telephoned the Surgery and spoke to the receptionist about this missed call, and that I was available to take the call at any time this afternoon.

The mental health nurse telephoned at 2.30 pm to my Mobile Phone that I could not answer being out of the house, but she then phoned on the Landline that Rashmi took and called me in to continue the conversation. She asked me what she could do for me. I said that I need a referral back to Britton House for a fresh new diagnosis of my mental state of mind, for it is not paranoid schizophrenic something else and a new Care Plan would be needed. She asked when was the diagnosis made of paranoid schizophrenia. I said the 3 July 2023. Before that I had other diagnosis like severe depression with psychotic features, persistent delusional disorder and bipolar. She asked if I had been to the mental hospital. I said yes twice, in 2004 and 2008, but since then I have been stable. She asked which hospitals? I said I do not know. She asked what makes you think that you are not paranoid schizophrenic. I said because I am calm and have no problems getting on with life to do the things that are necessary. She said if I had the phone number of Britton House. I said No, they will only consider this request for diagnosis review if it came from the Surgery. She then agreed to make the referral to Britton House but said this will not be soon. OK I said and the call ended.

Yes, TCLP-UK remembers Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's contributions appreciably without which we would not have come into being into the forefront of national and international development and politics.

Rishi Sunak

@RishiSunak

Today, on the solemn anniversary of the passing of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, our thoughts are with His Majesty King Charles III and the whole Royal Family.

With the perspective of a year, the scale of Her Late Majesty's service only seems greater. Her devotion to the nations of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth only seems deeper. And our gratitude for such an extraordinary life of duty and dedication, only continues to grow.

I treasure my memories of those occasions when I met Her Late Majesty, in particular the private audience I had with her at Buckingham Palace before presenting my first Budget as Chancellor. I was struck by her wisdom, by her incredible warmth and grace, but also her sharp wit.

People across the UK – whether they had the good fortune to meet Her Late Majesty or not – will be reflecting today on what she meant to them and the example she set for us all. We will cherish those memories.

The bond between country and monarch is sacred. It endures. So, while we continue to mourn Her Late Majesty's passing, we should be proud that this remarkable legacy of service – and this remarkable bond – continues to grow today under the reign of His Majesty The King.

Dear HP

The latest HP laptop we purchased is working well with the HP printer and it has not been confiscated by Kent Police. Perhaps the authorities have completed their investigations into alleged stalking and malicious communications and Speeding and other undisclosed offences with me as the only suspect.

The North Kent Magistrates Court will in the course of time inform my solicitor Olives Solicitors where we go from here.

Do you understand now? I mean comprehend.

Yours sincerely

Dear Jo

I am sorry I could not get back to you earlier. As Friday ends, we are happy, me as you say having Olives Solicitors take care of my legal entanglements while we enjoy a period of holidaying in Turkey. There are 6 days to go before we fly off and still anything can happen in terms of getting charged with offences like stalking and sending malicious communications to individuals and institutions. My defence will be that it was all in a day's work in resisting stalking and malicious communications from around 350-400 individuals coalesced under the banner of Victims of Panigrahi Association (VOPA).who I litigated against in my Claim against the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom believing that it was directed by the COBRA Committee and executed by MI5/MI6 that engineered hundreds of criminal anonymous emails to me and my associates. When the matter does come to Court, will instruct my solicitors to petition the Court to obtain information on VOPA (Mr Marty Caine, Dr Sivaji Panesar, Professor Nitin Bhardwaj, Cherie, Fritz Wehler, Egregious_G, Ed Mulhouse, Bury).

The Defence will go on for a very long time, unless the Court decides that I do not have any case to answer, being loyal to the State of the United Kingdom in which I have developed my own political party, <https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>.

I must see closure in this affair and until I secure damages and compensation from the UK-Treasury, I will not rest.

I have asked my GP Mental Health Nurse to refer me to Britton House for a diagnosis review, saying that I do not believe that I am paranoid schizophrenic but cool, calm and collected getting on with all my necessary chores.

Hope to hear from you again.

I'm pleased to read that you were able to book your prescription medications in readiness for your holiday.

I can see from what you write, the legal problems and uncertainties are causing you distress. Will having engaged the services of a solicitor allow your mind to be away from these entanglements while you are on holiday?

How are you feeling about your upcoming trip to Turkey?

To
 North Kent Magistrates Court

Your Honour

This morning I received a bundle of documents from Kent Police seemingly related to the 10 November 2023 2 pm Trial, that I you should find in the link attached for your consideration:
 Inadmissible evidence from Kent Police (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/inadmissible-evidence-from-kent-police>

The question was a very simple one: should I have been deprived by Hate Criminals in Kent Police of my legal entitlement to take a Speed Awareness Course that I had booked at the cost of £92 and which was subsequently withdrawn by Kent Police. I had asked for a delay in the date of the 11 January 2023 Course attendance day for reasons that should be clear in my latest communication this morning to my Member of Parliament Right Honourable Rehman Chishti as linked here: Looking forward to campaigning for you at the general election
 (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/looking-forward-to-campaigning-for-you-at-the-general-election.

The documents submitted by Kent Police is further manipulation of the due process of Justice in that Kent Police being unable to pursue me for stalking and malicious communications offences with a separate summons as a suspect because they know I am innocent and I was set upon by the State authorities by trapping me into criminal anonymous emails to terrorise me into submission to live like a slave to the State and which being a Conservative Libertarian I resisted, they wish to piggy back those proceedings on to this Trial in the most corrupt manner possible. If the Court allows this I will Appeal against any judgment to the Court of Appeal for Master Bancroft-Rimmer's attention under Case Reference: CA-2023-000750.

My Solicitors, Olives Solicitors, are hereby instructed accordingly.

Dear Sirs

I have taken account of your bundle document and consider it to have been highly irregular and inadmissible for the Trial of 10 November 2023, 2 pm at North Kent Magistrates Court sitting at Medway Magistrates Court, as linked here: Inadmissible evidence from Kent Police (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/inadmissible-evidence-from-kent-police>

Having brought the matter to the attention of North Kent Magistrates Court and the Court of Appeal whose responses were sought as attached: Responses of North Kent Magistrates Court and the Court of Appeal required.docx. apart from the technicalities involved, Kent Police has not adopted the appropriate procedure for the registering of its Case for the prosecution, which should have been submitted to KentCPO in the first instance because the preliminaries were completed in May/June 2023, and it would have been for the KentCPO to assess whether there was a case to answer from assessment of Kent Police's final version of the prosecution and if the Magistrate considered that there was, summons would have been served on me appropriately given the adjournment of the Trial has been applied for beyond 31 August 2024 by the Defendant.

Olives Solicitors is not intellectually able to deal with such issues as is evident from the 30 odd emails that I sent these Duty Solicitors without receiving a reply, so this morning I am requesting David Foreman if he would be able to look into my Case and represent me in Court.

Yours sincerely

At about 7 pm a LinkedIn email came in annoyingly. I then thought what am I going to do with this document. Print it out save it for the Magistrate, that is shit because the Magistrate is going to crucify me anyway being part of the conspiracy that is State-organised. So published the email in Daily Bulletin, tweeting and posting it in Vishista Advaita Sampradaya page of Facebook to face the State in full frontal mode:

Dear Shantanu,

Even though you have employed a firm of Solicitors - it sounds as though you are having to deal with a lot of very complex and difficult situations.

We hope that these matters are resolved in a satisfactory way for you and that the upcoming trips with your wife give you the opportunity for some mental release.

Dear Jo

Thank you for your email.

I have reached the point in the uncovering of truths that knows that I cannot trust any Solicitor to represent me in Court. They do not commit themselves to taking specific instructions in a timely manner from me.

Since I have not knowingly done anything wrong I am ready to face the Magistrates at North Kent Magistrates Court on 10 November 2023 2 pm unless the Court adjourns or reschedules the summons with additional matters that Kent Police is trying to insert into the proceedings.

As a Vishista Advaitist I face Reality each day as it comes without fear of the repercussions. I will not 'hide' under cover of my mental states of mind as being paranoid schizophrenic or anything else that the Britton House conjures up now. As you are aware I have challenged them into a fresh diagnosis of my mental faculties through my GP Surgery.

As I have said in my last email to you, I intend to seek damages and compensation for the suffering that I have endured, no matter how long that takes. For I cannot let truth get covered over by the powers of the State whatever means they adopt to doing so.

No one can take away my Hearing date with the Magistrates on the Trial: and the Court has been informed of all material facts that represent my Defence and other considerations of the unlawfulness of Bail and now the deliberate attempt to manipulate the proceedings yet again by Kent Police yesterday. I will go directly to the Court on the Trial Date and find out from the Magistrates what their decision is.

In the meantime, I am going on holiday and the Court knows that: no Solicitor or lawyer will represent me in front of the Magistrate or a Judge for they have all been manipulated against me by the State as time has shown. I do not wish to risk the Court pulling off a fast one on me through Olives Solicitors or some other Solicitor when I am out of this country. I will make sure that the Court is aware of this before we go to Turkey shortly.

Truth uncovering makes one strong and attains a position that convinces even the most diehard ignoramus to change their ways, would you not agree?

To

1. Rt Hon Alex Chalk, Lord Chancellor and Secretary for State for Justice
2. Rt Hon Suella Braverman, Home Secretary

Dear Mr Chalk and Ms Braverman

In respect of my rightful application for a Public Enquiry as attached:

ToAlexChalkLordChancellorSecofStateforJustice (PUBLIC ENQUIRY BY PARLIAMENT OF JUDICIAL AND LAW ENFORCEMENT SYSTEMS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM)23Jun2023.docx; thank you Mr Chalk for arranging the correspondence: Fr CentralCorrespondence Team (Justice) Reply to Dr Panigrahi TO 106707)17Jul2023.docx; FrHMCTS (CustomerService Complaint)20Jul2023.docx; relating to my appeal for a Public Enquiry on the malfunctions of the Judicial and Law Enforcement systems as these are combined although I do appreciate that Law Enforcement matters are under the remit of the Home Secretary Suella Braverman to whom I am copying this email so that a joint investigation is undertaken by your two departments of government.

I have gone through 6 further weeks of depositions that has culminated in the attached correspondence on the state of the matter which seems to indicate that fascist elements are prevalent and widespread in their disposal of Judicial and Law Enforcement matters of the State of the United Kingdom; or it could be that the State is organised by a fascist Establishment treating the subjects as a nation of morons in a Police State, as attached:

ToCentLonCtyCrtccJessicaDaCostaCourt ofAppeal(E35YM660 PROCEEDINGS AT THE CENTRAL LONDON COUNTY COURT)6Sep2023.docx.

Now with these alternative suggestions do you consider my appeal for a Public Enquiry is justified on the grounds that the racism that I have experienced shatters lives much like a natural calamity of a train accident in the railways that you said were the sort of reasons that a Public Enquiry through the Parliament is proceeded with?

Dear Right Honourable Alex Chalk

The Judicial and Law Enforcement processes of the United Kingdom that I have been proactively evaluating over the past 26 years as brought to you kind attention linked here: Application to the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice for Public Enquiry lodged (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com) have reached a complete stalemate this afternoon judging by the lack of response from North Kent Magistrates Court to my submission as reflected by the Automatic Response below but with no subsequent considered reply from the Court or from Kent Police. A Spam phone call that I received at 11.49 am from a 01223 852359 number seemingly signified the message from the State authorities that this is so.

Should your Honour therefore be minded to initiate the Public Enquiry process now, it will be useful as a means of moving the nation forward with the issues that have been highlighted.

17 July 2023

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email of 20 June, addressed to the Lord Chancellor, regarding the UK judicial and law enforcement systems. As a government official, I have been asked to reply.

I am sorry to hear of the distress which the matters set out in your email have caused you. Whilst I realise this is a difficult situation for you, I hope you will understand that neither Government Ministers nor their officials can comment on, or intervene in, specific cases. This is not due to a lack of concern, but in order to maintain the key constitutional principle that the judiciary must be independent of the Government.

You have asked for a public inquiry to be established to consider the matters you have raised.

However, a public inquiry is set up to look at a matter of public concern – for example, to establish the cause of a major disaster, accident or other event involving significant damage or loss of life. As the issues you have raised do not align with these parameters, I am afraid that the Government is unable to give further consideration to your request.

Turning to the concerns you raised in relation to Kent Police. The best way to make a complaint is to contact the police force involved. Police force websites include information about how to complain. A complaint can also be made by using an online form available on the website of the Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC) at: <https://policeconduct.gov.uk/complaints-and-appeals/make-complaint>. Police complaints to the IOPC are dealt with under a comprehensive legislative framework which sets out the duties of the police themselves in handling complaints as well as the role and functions of the “police watchdog” the IOPC. A short guide to the police complaints system outlining what you can expect to happen with your complaint is also available on the IOPC’s website: https://www.policeconduct.gov.uk/sites/default/files/Documents/Complaint_forms/IOPC_A_guide_to_complaint_system_2020.pdf. The Home Office can also be contacted directly for further clarity or to provide additional information, as policies concerning the police are Home Office-led. They can be contacted by writing to the following address: 2 Marsham Street, London, SW1P 4DF.

Further to this, if you remain dissatisfied with the way HMCTS have handled your case, information about how you can make an administrative complaint is available at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/hm-courts-and-tribunals-service/about/complaints-procedure>.

Lastly, it is open to you to seek free independent advice about the options available to you from a Law Centre and/or Citizens Advice (CA) and, where appropriate, refer clients to a pro bono organisation for free representation. You can find a Law Centre by contacting the Law Centres Network on 020 3637 1330 or by accessing their website at: <https://www.lawcentres.org.uk>. You can also find his nearest CA on 03444 111 444 or online at: <https://www.citizensadvice.org.uk>.

I hope you have found the information useful.

Yours sincerely,

Kwame Adade

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email of 23 June addressed to the Rt Hon Alex Chalk as Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice about your case. Your email has been passed to HM Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS) as the agency responsible for the administration of the courts and tribunals in England and Wales and I've been asked to reply.

I understand you remain unhappy with the decision by the judge ordering you to pay the defendant's costs. I hope you'll understand that Mr Chalk or any other government official cannot comment on or intervene in any decisions made by a judge. This isn't through lack of concern for the issues you raise but is because of the independence of the judiciary. The only way to challenge a decision is by making the appropriate application or appeal. I realise my reply will be disappointing.

I am aware Richard Redgrave, Head of Customer Investigation wrote to you on 29 June 2021 regarding the concerns you continue to raise. Whilst I appreciate your strength of feeling about this, there's nothing more we can usefully add, so we won't be replying to you about this again. This includes any correspondence about it that you send to ministers or officials, such as the Lord Chancellor.

I can see from your email that you received an auto response from the North Kent Magistrates' Court on 23 June and have stated in your email to Mr Chalk on 23 June that you're still waiting for a response. If you would like to make a complaint about the way court has responded to your correspondence, you can do so by writing to them directly at the first stage of HMCTS' complaints procedure. More information on how to do this is available at:

www.gov.uk/government/organisations/hm-courts-and-tribunals-service/about/complaints-procedure . We use our complaints to learn and change.

I realise you are also concerned that you haven't received a response from the Kent Police. We're unable to look into complaints about the police as they're separate to HMCTS. Information about how to complain about the Kent Police is available at:
www.kent.police.uk/fo/feedback/complaints/complaints/.

You may want to seek independent advice about the options available. You can:
 contact Citizens Advice for free, impartial advice. Information about the service they offer is available on their website: www.citizensadvice.org.uk contact Support Through Court, who offer advice to people going through the court system alone. Their website is: www.suporthroughcourt.org
 phone Civil Legal Advice on 0345 345 4 345. They can help find appropriate local advice services
 see if the information you need is available at: www.gov.uk find a legal adviser at: www.gov.uk/find-legal-advice.

I realise my reply will be disappointing but I hope it explains why Mr Chalk or any other official is unable to intervene in your case in the way you'd like.

Yours sincerely

Circuit Judge
Central London County Court

Your Honour

In connection with the proceedings at North Kent Magistrates Court that I find totally unsatisfactory in that a civil matter has been turned into a criminal matter by unscrupulous court officials in conjunction with Kent Police and other associated parties that I found myself protesting to these authorities as summarised by the Automatic Response of the Court below; I draw your attention to a the fact that my Claim E35YM660 following the CentralLonConCrtTNOTICEOF HEARING OF APPLICATION.pdf; CentralLondonCountyCourtOrder 21June 2021 (District JudgeLightman).pdf; CentralLondonCountyCourtOrderonE35YM660dated19January2021_receivedbyClaimantfirstat9.27am on 22 March2021.pdf; in which I have claimed £10 million in damages and compensation for the 26 years of brutal terrorism, persecution, victimisation, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice against me has yet to be lifted out of the adjournment that I was led to believe had taken place on the morning of the date of the Hearing of 20 January 2023.

In having gone through the due process of appealing against the adjournment at the Court of Appeal under Court Reference CA-2023-000750, the proceedings of which stumbled on the question of which Court had jurisdiction to hear the Case as adjudicated by Master Bancroft-Rimmer, I am wondering whether the Judicial and Law Enforcement system of the United Kingdom has collapsed.

Your comments to this submission would be most welcome.

MRS THERESA MAY – PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 1st Defendant Ref

Z1819776/MMX HO19

The hearing of the claimant's application dated 23.06.2022

Will take place at 10.00 AM on the 20 January 2023 at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

Time Estimate 1 hour IN PERSON before a Circuit Judge

LISTING POLICY: The court's listing policy is determined by the senior judge and implemented by staff in accordance with his directions. Your case may not be allocated to a judge until the day of the hearing, and may have to wait in the unassigned list until a judge becomes available to hear it. Every effort will be made to ensure that your case is heard at this or another convenient court. If it is not possible to provide a judge to hear your case, the court and Her Majesty's Court and Tribunal Service will not be responsible for any costs incurred in the absence of any departure from listing policy due to maladministration.

Parties should be aware that this case may be one of several cases that have been listed to commence at this time. This may mean that your case will not be called immediately at the time scheduled, but may be heard later in the day. We will try to ensure that if your case is listed in the morning it is heard by 1 pm and if your case is listed in the afternoon it is heard by 4 pm. In some circumstances it is possible that your hearing could overrun. You and any witnesses should therefore be available until the end of these periods or even later.

If there are special reasons why this is inconvenient you may make a short notice application to a circuit judge to adjourn. Ordinary inconvenience arising from the fact of being in the unassigned list will not be sufficient reason for an adjournment, nor will the fact that both parties agree to an adjournement.

ACCESSIBILITY: Please inform us as soon as possible if you, your witnesses or legal representatives have a physical disability that may affect your attendance at this court. We can make alternative arrangements for the case to be heard in a suitable court room by calling the Customer Service Team on 0300 123 3577.

This will help our staff or the judge to consider what you'll need to do during your case and any help we can provide. Our staff will always talk with you and agree any reasonable adjustments you need.

 MRS THERESA MAY – PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 1ST Defendant Ref Z1819776/H019

Before His Honour Judge Parfitt sitting at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

On the Court hearing the Appellant but the Appellant withdrawing from the telephone hearing after making his submission and on the Appellant's request to reconsider the permission to appeal refused by HHJ Letham by Order dated 30 September 2019

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. The request to reconsider permission is refused.
2. The Appellant;s application was totally without merit: the DDJ's Order was wholly appropriate as a case management order and the stated grounds of appeal that the Appellant lacked access to legal advice was hopeless and the oral argument put forward that the DDJ was a liar acting as part of a conspiracy to silence the Appellant was absurd (both in its premise and in its substance – since the order under appeal gave the Appellant a final chance to make his particulars of claim good).
3. The Respondent's application for costs of the action must be referred to a DJ pursuant to CPR 3.5 (2)(a) and the Respondent's letter dated 13 January 2021 and two cost schedules contained in the Appeal bundle (in pdf format) shall be treated as application in that respect.
4. The Respondent's costs of the appeal are to be treated as Respondent's costs in the action.

Dear Jo

Thank you for your email.

I have reached the point in the uncovering of truths that knows that I cannot trust any Solicitor to represent me in Court. They do not commit themselves to taking specific instructions in a timely manner from me.

Since I have not knowingly done anything wrong I am ready to face the Magistrates at North Kent Magistrates Court on 10 November 2023 2 pm unless the Court adjourns or reschedules the summons with additional matters that Kent Police is trying to insert into the proceedings.

As a Vishista Advaitist I face Reality each day as it comes without fear of the repercussions. I will not 'hide' under cover of my mental states of mind as being paranoid schizophrenic or anything else that the Britton House conjures up now. As you are aware I have challenged them into a fresh diagnosis of my mental faculties through my GP Surgery.

As I have said in my last email to you, I intend to seek damages and compensation for the suffering that I have endured, no matter how long that takes. For I cannot let truth get covered over by the powers of the State whatever means they adopt to doing so.

No one can take away my Hearing date with the Magistrates on the Trial: and the Court has been informed of all material facts that represent my Defence and other considerations of the unlawfulness of Bail and now the deliberate attempt to manipulate the proceedings yet again by Kent Police yesterday. I will go directly to the Court on the Trial Date and find out from the Magistrates what their decision is.

In the meantime, I am going on holiday and the Court knows that: no Solicitor or lawyer will represent me in front of the Magistrate or a Judge for they have all been manipulated against me by the State as time has shown. I do not wish to risk the Court pulling off a fast one on me through Olives Solicitors or some other Solicitor when I am out of this country. I will make sure that the Court is aware of this before we go to Turkey shortly.

Truth uncovering makes one strong and attains a position that convinces even the most diehard ignoramus to change their ways, would you not agree?

Dear Mr Chalk and Ms Braverman

In respect of my rightful application for a Public Enquiry as attached:
 ToAlexChalkLordChancellorSecofStateforJustice (PUBLIC ENQUIRY BY PARLIAMENT OF JUDICIAL AND LAW ENFORCEMENT SYSTEMS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM)23Jun2023.docx; thank you Mr Chalk for arranging the correspondence: Fr CentralCorrespondence Team (Justice) Reply to Dr Panigrahi TO 106707)17Jul2023.docx; FrHMCTS (CustomerService Complaint)20Jul2023.docx; relating to my appeal for a Public Enquiry on the malfunctions of the Judicial and Law Enforcement systems as these are combined although I do appreciate that Law Enforcement matters are under the remit of the Home Secretary Suella Braverman to whom I am copying this email so that a joint investigation is undertaken by your two departments of government.

I have gone through 6 further weeks of depositions that has culminated in the attached correspondence on the state of the matter which seems to indicate that fascist elements are prevalent and widespread in their disposal of Judicial and Law Enforcement matters of the State of the United Kingdom; or it could be that the State is organised by a fascist Establishment treating the subjects as a nation of morons in a Police State, as attached:

ToCentLonCtyCrtccJessicaDaCostaCourtAppeal(E35YM660 PROCEEDINGS AT THE CENTRAL LONDON COUNTY COURT)6Sep2023.docx.

Now with these alternative suggestions do you consider my appeal for a Public Enquiry is justified on the grounds that the racism that I have experienced shatters lives much like a natural calamity of a train accident in the railways that you said were the sort of reasons that a Public Enquiry through the Parliament is proceeded with?

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email of 20 June, addressed to the Lord Chancellor, regarding the UK judicial and law enforcement systems. As a government official, I have been asked to reply.

I am sorry to hear of the distress which the matters set out in your email have caused you. Whilst I realise this is a difficult situation for you, I hope you will understand that neither Government Ministers nor their officials can comment on, or intervene in, specific cases. This is not due to a lack of concern, but in order to maintain the key constitutional principle that the judiciary must be independent of the Government.

You have asked for a public inquiry to be established to consider the matters you have raised. However, a public inquiry is set up to look at a matter of public concern – for example, to establish the cause of a major disaster, accident or other event involving significant damage or loss of life. As the issues you have raised do not align with these parameters, I am afraid that the Government is unable to give further consideration to your request.

Turning to the concerns you raised in relation to Kent Police. The best way to make a complaint is to contact the police force involved. Police force websites include information about how to complain. A complaint can also be made by using an online form available on the website of the Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC) at: <https://policeconduct.gov.uk/complaints-and-appeals/make-complaint>. Police complaints to the IOPC are dealt with under a comprehensive legislative framework which sets out the duties of the police themselves in handling complaints as well as the role and functions of the “police watchdog” the IOPC. A short guide to the police complaints system outlining what you can expect to happen with your complaint is also available on the IOPC’s website: https://www.policeconduct.gov.uk/sites/default/files/Documents/Complaint_forms/IOPC_A_guide_to_complaint_system_2020.pdf. The Home Office can also be contacted directly for further clarity or to provide additional information, as policies concerning the police are Home Office-led. They can be contacted by writing to the following address: 2 Marsham Street, London, SW1P 4DF.

Further to this, if you remain dissatisfied with the way HMCTS have handled your case, information about how you can make an administrative complaint is available at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/hm-courts-and-tribunals-service/about/complaints-procedure>.

Lastly, it is open to you to seek free independent advice about the options available to you from a Law Centre and/or Citizens Advice (CA) and, where appropriate, refer clients to a pro bono organisation for free representation. You can find a Law Centre by contacting the Law Centres Network on 020 3637 1330 or by accessing their website at: <https://www.lawcentres.org.uk>. You can also find his nearest CA on 03444 111 444 or online at: <https://www.citizensadvice.org.uk>.

I hope you have found the information useful.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email of 23 June addressed to the Rt Hon Alex Chalk as Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice about your case. Your email has been passed to HM Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS) as the agency responsible for the administration of the courts and tribunals in England and Wales and I've been asked to reply.

I understand you remain unhappy with the decision by the judge ordering you to pay the defendant's costs. I hope you'll understand that Mr Chalk or any other government official cannot comment on or intervene in any decisions made by a judge. This isn't through lack of concern for the issues you raise but is because of the independence of the judiciary. The only way to challenge a decision is by making the appropriate application or appeal. I realise my reply will be disappointing.

I am aware Richard Redgrave, Head of Customer Investigation wrote to you on 29 June 2021 regarding the concerns you continue to raise. Whilst I appreciate your strength of feeling about this, there's nothing more we can usefully add, so we won't be replying to you about this again. This includes any correspondence about it that you send to ministers or officials, such as the Lord Chancellor.

I can see from your email that you received an auto response from the North Kent Magistrates' Court on 23 June and have stated in your email to Mr Chalk on 23 June that you're still waiting for a response. If you would like to make a complaint about the way court has responded to your correspondence, you can do so by writing to them directly at the first stage of HMCTS' complaints procedure. More information on how to do this is available at: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/hm-courts-and-tribunals-service/about/complaints-procedure. We use our complaints to learn and change.

I realise you are also concerned that you haven't received a response from the Kent Police. We're unable to look into complaints about the police as they're separate to HMCTS. Information about how to complain about the Kent Police is available at: www.kent.police.uk/fo/feedback/complaints/complaints/.

You may want to seek independent advice about the options available. You can:
 contact Citizens Advice for free, impartial advice. Information about the service they offer is available on their website: www.citizensadvice.org.uk
 contact Support Through Court, who offer advice to people going through the court system alone. Their website is: www.supportthroughcourt.org
 phone Civil Legal Advice on 0345 345 4 345. They can help find appropriate local advice services
 see if the information you need is available at: www.gov.uk find a legal adviser at: www.gov.uk/find-legal-advice.

I realise my reply will be disappointing but I hope it explains why Mr Chalk or any other official is unable to intervene in your case in the way you'd like.

Yours sincerely

 Circuit Judge
 Central London County Court

Your Honour

In connection with the proceedings at North Kent Magistrates Court that I find totally unsatisfactory in that a civil matter has been turned into a criminal matter by unscrupulous court officials in conjunction with Kent Police and other associated parties that I found myself protesting to these authorities as summarised by the Automatic Response of the Court below; I draw your attention to a the fact that my Claim E35YM660 following the CentralLonConCrtTNOTICEOF HEARING OF APPLICATION.pdf; CentralLondonCountyCourtOrder 21June 2021 (District JudgeLightman).pdf; CentralLondonCountyCourtOrderonE35YM660dated19January2021_receivedbyClaimantfirstat9.27am on 22 March2021.pdf; in which I have claimed £10 million in damages and compensation for the 26 years of brutal terrorism, persecution, victimisation, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice against me has yet to be lifted out of the adjournment that I was led to believe had taken place on the morning of the date of the Hearing of 20 January 2023.

In having gone through the due process of appealing against the adjournment at the Court of Appeal under Court Reference CA-2023-000750, the proceedings of which stumbled on the question of which Court had jurisdiction to hear the Case as adjudicated by Master Bancroft-Rimmer, I am wondering whether the Judicial and Law Enforcement system of the United Kingdom has collapsed.

Your comments to this submission would be most welcome.

Notice of Hearing of Application

In the County Court at Central London

Claim Number E35YM660

Date: 13 December 2022

MRS THERESA MAY – PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 1st Defendant Ref

Z1819776/MMX HO19

The hearing of the claimant's application dated 23.06.2022

Will take place at 10.00 AM on the 20 January 2023 at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts Of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

Time Estimate 1 hour IN PERSON before a Circuit Judge

LISTING POLICY: The court's listing policy is determined by the senior judge and implemented by staff in accordance with his directions. Your case may not be allocated to a judge until the day of the hearing, and may have to wait in the unassigned list until a judge becomes available to hear it. Every effort will be made to ensure that your case is heard at this or another convenient court. If it is not possible to provide a judge to hear your case, the court and Her Majesty's Court and Tribunal Service will not be responsible for any costs incurred in the absence of any departure from listing policy due to maladministration.

Parties should be aware that this case may be one of several cases that have been listed to commence at this time. This may mean that your case will not be called immediately at the time scheduled, but may be heard later in the day. We will try to ensure that if your case is listed in the morning it is heard by 1 pm and if your case is listed in the afternoon it is heard by 4 pm. In some circumstances it is possible that your hearing could overrun. You and any witnesses should therefore be available until the end of these periods or even later.

If there are special reasons why this is inconvenient you may make a short notice application to a circuit judge to adjourn. Ordinary inconvenience arising from the fact of being in the unassigned list will not be sufficient reason for an adjournment, nor will the fact that both parties agree to an adjournement.

ACCESSIBILITY: Please inform us as soon as possible if you, your witnesses or legal representatives have a physical disability that may affect your attendance at this court. We can make alternative arrangements for the case to be heard in a suitable court room by calling the Customer Service Team on 0300 123 3577.

FILING OF SKELETON ARGUMENTS AND TRIAL BUNDLES: Trial bundles (if applicable) should be lodged no earlier than 3 working days before the trial (unless otherwise ordered). All trial bundles should be

- . emailing RCJ.DCO@justice.gov.uk , or centrallondoncounty.dco@justice.gov.uk
- . phoning our Disability Contact Officer 0207 947 6063.

To help us provide the best help and support, you should try to explain how your disability affects you and give as much information as you can. This will help our staff or the judge to consider what you'll need to do during your case and any help we can provide. Our staff will always talk with you and agree any reasonable adjustments you need.

 (The County Court Sealed)

 MRS THERESA MAY – PRIME MINISTER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM 1ST Defendant Ref Z1819776/H019

Before His Honour Judge Parfitt sitting at the County Court at Central London, Thomas More Building, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL.

On the Court hearing the Appellant but the Appellant withdrawing from the telephone hearing after making his submission and on the Appellant's request to reconsider the permission to appeal refused by HHJ Letham by Order dated 30 September 2019

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. The request to reconsider permission is refused.
2. The Appellant;s application was totally without merit: the DDJ's Order was wholly appropriate as a case management order and the stated grounds of appeal that the Appellant lacked access to legal advice was hopeless and the oral argument put forward that the DDJ was a liar acting as part of a conspiracy to silence the Appellant was absurd (both in its premise and in its substance – since the order under appeal gave the Appellant a final chance to make his particulars of claim good).
3. The Respondent's application for costs of the action must be referred to a DJ pursuant to CPR 3.5 (2)(a) and the Respondent's letter dated 13 January 2021 and two cost schedules contained in the Appeal bundle (in pdf format) shall be treated as application in that respect.
4. The Respondent's costs of the appeal are to be treated as Respondent's costs in the action.

Dear Shantanu,

Thank you for the update on your legal situation, how would you say the other areas of your life are at the moment?

Your writings on truth are very interesting, I can tell that is something that is very important to you and, and it clearly takes a lot of strength to pursue the truth during such challenging legal and medical circumstances.

I hope you find your holiday to Turkey a restful one and that your family celebration of your daughter's birthday is a happy and memorable occasion.

Hello Jo

I am not sure about the legal situation: it was my right to submit to Parliament an application for Public Enquiry on the Judicial and Law Enforcement Systems of the United Kingdom to determine: whether fascist elements are prevalent and widespread in their disposal of Judicial and Law Enforcement matters of the State of the United Kingdom; or it could be that the State is organised by a fascist Establishment treating the subjects as a nation of morons in a Police State; based on what I have experienced over 26 years.

If the matter is being dealt with under a Public Enquiry in Parliament now, the Courts cannot interfere in the process and would have no choice but to adjourn any proceedings pending for or against me.

Who surfaces next on to me will determine where the proceedings are right now, whether at Kent Police, or at North Kent Magistrates Court or in Parliament. I am going to wait to find out; as they say curiosity killed the cat.

The medical problems are also not clear and I will not question my GP again as to what it has done on my last eConsultation to have a diagnosis review. I have got all my medications for the trip to Turkey, then I will be back in time to attend the Bail appointment of 28 September 2023, 1600 hours at Medway Police Station and will find out if the Bail has been extended or terminated and if so whether I have been charged. Then there is the 10 October 2023 Bail appointment also at 1600 hours that legally I cannot also avoid for neither the North Kent Magistrates Court, nor the Office of Police Commissioner has sent me a report on its unjust and intolerable nature.

By playing a waiting game, I will corner Kent Police to show its hands in the two Bail dates as to what is happening on the legalities and also the medical aspects of the Case.

The truth-path is therefore quite simple to follow: if one has attained the Self (Brahman) state of mind.

Your Honour,

As I prepare for a short break with the family in Turkey, please take account of the fact that I am now unrepresented for my Trial of 10 November 2023, 2 pm and that the torture from Internet Companies such as Instagram below and LinkedIn through emails has continued. Fascists infest every nook and cranny of the State that I have just had to learn to live with.

I will of course keep the Magistrates informed of any associated matters such as Bail conditions as I have such information.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Hi,

Circling back on my previous email if you have a requirement for MOBILE APP/WEB APP DEV SERVICE.

Can we schedule a quick call for Wednesday (13th September) or Thursday (14th September)?

Please suggest a suitable time based on your availability. Please share your contact information to connect.

Thank you
Radhika Singh

Hi,

We are a Software development company; we build custom solutions based on required functional specifications that automate various business applications.

Do you have an app development idea? We can build as per your business needs.

Just wanted to connect over a call and discuss our portfolio and previous works along with your idea of an app.

Look forward to your response.

Thank you

Deleted all emails from sent, inbox, all mail, bin and trash folders everywhere in gmail: I am not posting these last two emails in open Daily Bulletin so as not to draw specific interests into them. I will update this book in Libertarian Democracy Diary of the author and in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop as possibly the last thing to write on this matter. For if no emails come from Kent Police, or the Court today by 5 pm, the Public Enquiry has started, as from 23 June 2023 that had initial correspondence from the Justice Department and HMCTS. That is the last material on Daily Bulletin and so it stands unchallenged having tested it with North Kent Magistrates Court today with the email specifying Fascists infested the nooks and cranny of the State that I have had to learn to live with.
